About me:

I began my role as a teaching assistant when my daughter came to this school. I enjoyed contributing to children’s learning journeys so much that it inspired me to make it my chosen career. Seeing the ‘light bulb switch on’ when a child has achieved their learning goal is what makes my job so fulfilling.

My motto:

If at first you don’t succeed, try, try again!

My embarrassing Fact:

I sometimes talk in my sleep.